

Aboriginal Coaching Module

The Aboriginal Coaching Module offers three modules to assist coaches working with Aboriginal athletes in understanding some of the issues influencing these individuals and their communities. The modules include:

1. A Holistic Approach to Coaching
2. Dealing with Racism in Sport
3. Lifestyle, Health and Nutrition.

The intent of these modules is to prepare you to address these issues. The modules focus on the following areas:

- Understanding the role of sport in Aboriginal communities
- Understanding and influencing the community in which you coach
- Coaching the whole person, coaching beyond the physical to include the mental (intellectual/emotional), spiritual, and cultural
- Responding to racism in sport
- Establishing a code of behaviour for your team that respects differences and addresses racism
- Helping young people make healthy choices.

The Indigenous Sport Council Alberta is responsible for the delivery of the program in Alberta. If your organization or community wishes to host an ACM, the following steps must be followed:

1. Contact Leslie Kucey, Program Coordinator ISCAPC@outlook.com with respect to your interest and proposed dates.
2. Complete the ACM Request form.
3. Submit $750.00 registration fee with request form.
4. Host may charge a registration fee to offset hosting costs.
